

Garment Technology and Management (GTM - DLP)

The program is designed for managers, executives and supervisors working in production, quality assurance, R&D, IE, and design development activities in the textile/garment/home furnishing industry. The program concentrates on enhancing candidates' knowledge in latest manufacturing techniques, quality assurance systems and management aspects.

Program Content:

Module 1 - Textile Technology

- Fundamentals of Textile Manufacturing Processes
- Commercial Woven and Knitted Fabrics
- Quality Evaluation of Fabrics

Module 2 - Garment Technology

- Fundamentals of Pattern Making and CAD
- Garment Manufacturing Technology - cutting to packing
- Production Planning and Control
- Quality Assurance in Garment Manufacturing - raw material to final inspection
- Industrial Engineering-work study and line balancing
- Garment Washing and Finishing

Module 3 - General Management

- Human Resource Development
- Social Compliance (SA-8000)