

Quality Evaluation of Textiles and Garments (QETG - DLP)

Quality evaluation is an integral part of textile or apparel manufacturing activities. The program is designed for managers, executives and technicians associated with inspection, testing and quality control activities in the textile and garment industry. The program lays special emphasis on scientific systems & procedures essential for evaluation of textiles & garments.

Program Content:

Module 1- Quality Evaluation of Textile Materials

- Introduction to Textile Manufacturing Processes
- Principles of Textile Testing
- Quality Evaluation of fibres, yarns and fabrics
- Testing of dyes, chemicals and auxiliaries
- Woven and Knitted Fabric Defects

Module 2- Quality Evaluation for Garment Industry

- Introduction to garment manufacturing processes
- Concept of quality and quality cost relationship
- Body measurements & Sizing systems
- Fabric inspections systems
- Trims and Accessories
- In-process and final inspection
- Garment and Accessories Testing
- Statistics Applications in textile and garment industry